

Name: _____

Post-Knowledge Worksheet Period: _____

1. Define Fetal Alcohol Syndrome.

2. List 3 of the 5 main characteristics of FAS.

3. What causes FAS?

4. Can FAS be cured? _____

5. FAS affects _____ births per year in the United States.

6. List five possible symptoms of FAS.

7. The vertical groove that runs from under the nose to the upper lip is called the _____.

8. How many drinks are safe for a pregnant woman to drink? _____

9. At least one out of every _____ pregnant women uses alcohol and/or other drugs.

10. How does alcohol pass from the mother to the fetus? _____

11. Give two reasons why it is so hard to diagnose FAS.

12. During what trimester is it safe for a pregnant woman to drink?

13. List two ways that alcohol can affect a man's fertility.

14. Define teratogen.

15. Describe the difference between Fetal Alcohol Syndrome and Fetal Alcohol Effects.

16. What year was the term FAS first introduced?

17. Does FAS pass from one generation to the next? Why or why not?

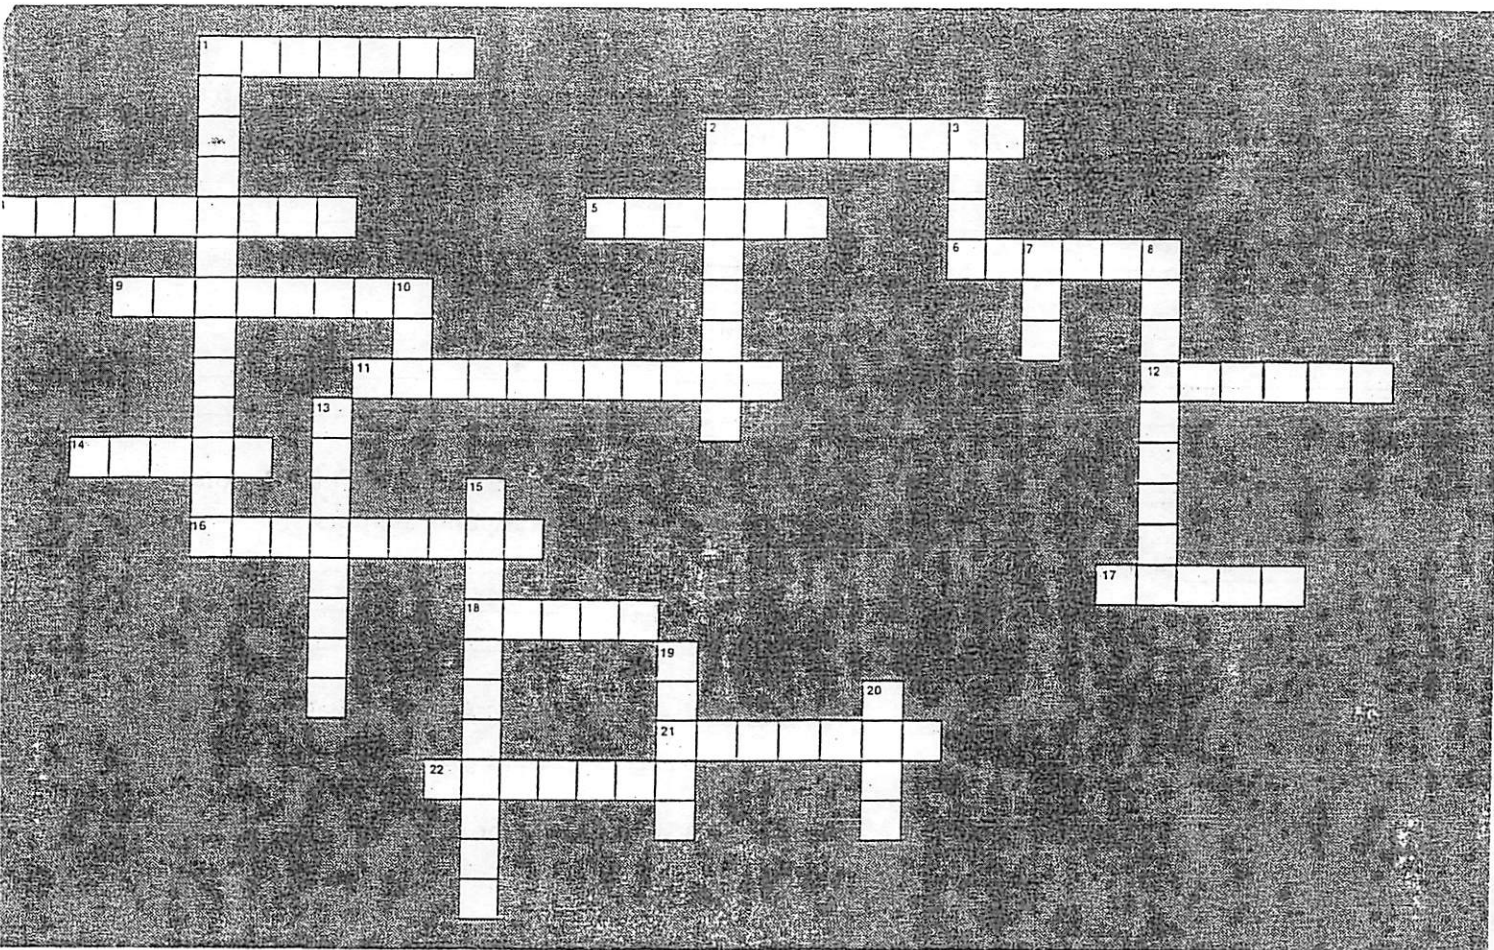

18. List three of the organs in an infant that are most affected by alcohol.

19. What aspects of the mother's drinking determine the severity of damage done to the fetus?

20. Is it easy to get statistics about FAS and FAE? Why or why not?

Name: _____
Period: _____

Enrichment Activity FAS/FAE Crossword

Across

1. Wine, beer, hard liquor, etc.
2. FAS has _____ and mental symptoms
4. Causes harm to a fetus
5. Newborn child
6. Deformity
9. Vertical groove between nose and mouth
11. Drinking can cause this in men
12. Having to do with the mind
14. Unborn child
16. Medical conclusion based on symptoms
17. Standard _____ is one beer, glass of wine, or shot
18. Young person
21. The Realityworks FAS _____
22. Area between eyes and mouth

Down

1. Surrounds fetus in the womb (2 words)
2. Carries alcohol from the mother to the infant
3. Term describing physical defects caused by alcohol
7. Term for specific set of birth defects caused by alcohol
8. Three-month period of pregnancy
10. Male persons
13. With child
15. Infant dies before birth
19. Female persons
20. Drinking puts baby at _____ for FAS